Category	Aperitif
Method	Produced through a careful infusion of selected local herbs in a neutral alcohol base, where they rest for 4-6 weeks. The aromatics are dissolved in water, after which sugar syrup, additional water and alcohol are carefully added.
Product Picture	Tasting Notes and Pairing
	This aperitif presents an enveloping bouquet that recalls bunches of aromatic herbs, with rosemary, thyme, santolina, sage, and eucalyptus competing for attention, complemented by bright accents of orange peel, tamarind, and cloves. On the palate, it is dry yet enveloping, strong and inviting, with an incisive bitter note that gives structure and a very long citrus peel finish that lingers elegantly. An explosive creation in the world of bitters, it captures a thousand scents of Sardinia and Mediterranean scrub, wrapped in an artistic label with clear Futurist references. Versatile and democratic in cocktails, its pronounced citrus and bitter character make it ideal for mixing—perfect for an all-Sardinian Negroni—while also standing beautifully as an aperitif neat or nearly neat, served over ice with a slice of blood orange and a few drops of Angostura.
